TIGHTENING THE COIL

Another Day's Damaging Evidence Against Scott Jackson.

EIGHT WITNESSES EXAMINED

Everyone of Them Connect Jackson With the Crime on Circumstantial Evidence.

Doctors That Held the Postmortem Examination Declare That Pearl Bryan Was Alive When Her Head Was Cut Off.

CINCINNATI, April 23.—The second day's trial of Scott Jackson for the murder of Pearl Bryan was unattended by any startling results. The most damaging testimony offered was that of Dr. Robert Carothers, who performed the postmortem examinations. His opinion was that the girl was beheaded while she was still alive.

The Bryans came into the courtroom a few minutes before 10 o'clock. Both the father and mother of Pearl Bryan looked weary after their travel. The two brothers, Fred and Frank, Mrs. Stanley, Druggist Perry of Greencastle, Merchant Vermillion, who sold handkerchiefs to the girl, and Dr. Gillespie reached the city at 7.30 o'clock, and were brought to the courthouse by L. D. Poock, whose shoe clew resulted in the identification of the girl. All the Greencastle party were seated together in the courtroom.

Five witnesses were examined during the morning session. The first placed on the stand was Mrs. Stanley, the sister of Pearl Bryan, who made a model witness. She identified the clothing of her sister, fingering the bloody, muddy garment, and bearing up bravely under the most of her testimony. The defense would not cross-examine her.

Joseph Percy, a young Greencastle druggist, was placed on the stand for a few minutes. He said he had sold Pearl Bryan a pocketbook Jan. 23. He identified the one found in Scott Jackson's effects after his arrest, as the one he sold Pearl Bryan in Greencastle two weeks before.

A handkerchief found in Jackson's effects was also introduced, and the cost mark and two dots were identified by Isaiah Vermillion, a Greencastle merchant, as a mark used in his store. Pearl Bryan frequently traded there.

Lieutenant Atkinson of Fort Thomas was one of the first men to arrive at the scene of the murder. He described the surroundings again. The blood on the bushes, he said, was 20 inches above the ground, and directly above where a body appeared to have lain. The defense objected to a question as to whether the blood seemed to have been spurted there, and was sustained.

Dr. Robert Carothers, who performed the autopsy, said the girl was alive when her head was cut off. This was shown by the absence of coagulated blood in her veins. The court adjourned at 1 o'clock for two hours' recess. Carothers was then still on the stand.

At the afternoon session Pearl Bryan's relatives were given seats inside the railing. Her aged father sat within two or three feet of Jackson and listened to the testimony apparently with the keenest interest. Dr. Carothers was still on the stand. Attorney Crawford endeavored to make him admit that a "retraction" of the wound in the hand would have taken place if it had been inflicted after death, but the doctor insisted that such would not be the case. He also answered "No" to a question as to whether the conditions of the body might not indicate that the girl was asphyxiated and then beheaded.

Dr. R. J. Gillespie of Greencastle was the next witness. He said that Jackson was in his employ up to last October, when Jackson left for Cincinnati. At one time Jackson had told him that he was responsible for Pearl Bryan's condition.

Attorney Crawford, for the defense, emphasized the fact that at first Jackson had denied having had any illicit relations with the girl and then dismissed Gillespie.

Mayor Caldwell of this city was the next witness. He testified that Jackson had admitted to him that he had seen Pearl Bryan. She came to the dental college in a cab. He met her at the Indiana House on Tuesday, and again on Wednesday at Fourth and Vine streets, or Fourth and Walnut streets. He had sent Walling to notify her that he would meet her that evening. He said he did not see her again until after Wednesday. Jackson admitted that the satchel he left at Legner's saloon was Pearl Bryan's.

The mayor then gave a detailed account of the examination of both Jackson and Walling.

"Walling said Jackson told him he intended to kill Pearl Bryan by quick poison. Later, said Walling, Jackson told him he intended to take Pearl Bryan to Bellevue Thursday evening and there kill her.

"Walling said Jackson went to a Sixth street pharmacy and bought a heaping teaspoonful of cocaine. He said he was going to use it to paralyze her vocal organs and cut her head off.

"Jackson denied this, and the men accused each other of the murder.

"Walling then told about Jackson's studying poisons. At first Walling said Jackson said he would give Pearl Bryan quick poison and afterward, according to Walling, Jackson said: 'No, I'll cut her into small pieces and dispose of them in various parts of the city.'

The blood-stained satchel was tendered to the jury for inspection, despite Mr. Crawford's objection.

The mayor was asked to identify the pants found in Jackson's locker, also Jackson's coat found in the sewer.

The mayor's testimony was closed with his identification of the last letter

Jackson wrote to Will Wood and which was intercepted by the police. It was in this letter that Jackson told Wood to concoct a story and tell it to Pearl Bryan's family to convince them that she was tired of home and had gone to Chicago.

Dr. J. O. Jenkins of Newport was the next witness. He had helped perform the postmortem on Pearl Bryan's body. His testimony corroborated that of Dr. Carothers, that his opinion was that the girl was beheaded while she was still alive. Court then adjourned.

PENSION BILLS VETOED.

The President Returns Two, With Objections.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The president yesterday sent to the senate vetoes of two pension bills. The first was in the case of Charles E. Jones, a photographer, which attracted considerable attention in the house. It is as follows: "I return herewith without my approval senate bill No. 249, entitled 'An act granting a pension to Charles E. Jones.' The beneficiary named in this bill was a photographer who accompanied one of the regiments of the Union army during the war of the rebellion. He was injured, apparently not very seriously, while taking photographs, and where no battle was in actual progress. He was not enlisted, and was in no manner in the military service of the United States. Aside from the question as to whether his present sad condition is attributable to the injury sustained, it seems to me the extension of pension relief to such cases would open the door to legislation hard to justify and impossible to restrain from abuse."

The other veto was in the case of the bill for a pension to Nancy G. Allabach. She is the widow of Peter H. Allabach, who served in both the Mexican war and the war of the rebellion. The president calls attention to the fact that Mr. Allabach made no application for pension on account of disabilities during his life. "It is not," he says, "now claimed that he was in the least disabled as an incident of his military service, nor is it alleged that his death which occurred nearly 20 years after his discharge from the army was in any degree related to such service."

He says the widow was pensioned after her husband's death as the widow of a Mexican soldier, and that her case falls under the general act of 1890. "It is proposed, however," he continues, "by the special act under consideration, to give this widow a pension of $30 a month, without the least suggestion of the death or disability of her husband having been caused by his military service, and solely so far as discoverable, upon the ground that she is poor and needs the money. The condition is precisely covered by existing laws; and if a precedent is to be established by the special legislation proposed, I do not see how the same relief as is contained in this bill can be denied to the many thousands of widows who in a similar situation are now on the pension rolls under general laws."

TENNESSEE REPUBLICANS.

McKinley For President and H. C. Evans For Vice President.

NASHVILLE, April 23.—The Republican state convention yesterday was a McKinley convention and an Evans convention. This was seen in every move made, in all the speeches and in the shouts and applause of the delegates. The McKinley men were here to win and they won, although they rubbed out one name on the slate and wrote another for harmony's sake and all instructions are for McKinley and his benefit.

The platform instructed the delegates for McKinley for president and for H. C. Evans of Tennessee for vice president. E. J. Sandford of Knoxville, H. C. Evans of Chattanooga and J. C. Jeffreys were elected by acclamation. On the second ballot Ernest Caldwell of Shelbyville was elected fourth delegate, defeating J. G. Napier, colored, of Nashville. All the candidates before the votes were taken were required to appear and pledge the convention that they would abide by the instructions in letter and spirit.

The financial plank of the platform is as follows: "We are unalterably opposed to any scheme that will give to this country a depreciated and debased currency. We favor the use of silver as currency, but to the extent only that its parity with gold will be maintained, and in consequence are opposed to a free and unlimited and independent coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. We believe that every American dollar should be an honest 100-cent dollar always and everywhere."

Mad Dog Scare.

PORTLAND, Ind., April 23.—The report has reached here that a genuine mad dog had been on the rampage in Noble township, terrifying people and biting stock. Two cows belonging to William F. Stone, a hog owned by Charles Morehouse, several other farm animals and a number of dogs have fallen victims to its ferocity. It is also stated that a man who was plowing in the field had been bitten on the hand, but his name was not learned. All the farmers in the neighborhood have their firearms loaded, and are prepared to kill the animal, if it again puts in an appearance.

Baron Hirsch's Death.

BUDA-PESTH, April 23.—An autopsy has been held upon the body of Baron de Hirsch, which proved that his death was due to apoplexy. Rumors that the baron had committed suicide or that his death was due to other than natural causes, such as were circulated in the United States by a news agency, were totally unfounded.

MUST RENT A HOUSE

FLEISCHMANN'S BILL DEFEATED.

The Vote on the Measure Resulted in a Tie—Rogers' Fifty-Year Street Car Franchise Bill Enacted Into a Law. Proceedings of Both the House and Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—Senator Fleischmann's bill to appropriate $120,000 for a governor's mansion received a black eye in the house yesterday. After a warm discussion it was defeated by a vote of 46 yeas to 46 nays.

The Rogers' 50-year franchise bill for street railways is a law. The house by a vote of 75 to 7 concurred in the senate amendment providing for readjustment of conditions and terms at the end of 20 years and at the end of each succeeding period of 15 years.

Senator Plumer's bill providing for a bond issue by Cincinnati of $5,500,000 for an improved water supply was then passed by a vote of 59 to 20.

Other bills were passed as follows:

Providing that fraternal and beneficial societies, orders and associations shall report to the insurance commissioner.

Providing for the reduction of fees for county officers, except in Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Lucas, Franklin, Montgomery and Richland counties.

Limiting the liabilities of innkeepers to $500 on goods stolen.

The senate passed Mr. Clark's bill prohibiting sweat shops and Mr. Plumer's bill making a distinction between drugs intended for medicinal use and those intended for commercial or mechanical uses. Both these bills were defeated recently, but reconsidered. It now remains for the house to make laws of them by favorable action. The word "materially" was stricken out of the Plumer bill where it was used as a modifier in the clause declaring drugs intended for manufacturing and general purposes to be adulterated if differing "materially" from the standard under which they are sold.

Other bills were passed in the senate as follows:

House bill to prevent loitering about the polls.

House bill providing that clocks on public buildings shall be run on standard time.

House joint resolution for the appointment of a commission by the governor to investigate and determine as to advisability of the states disposing of the whole or part of the canals of the state.

House bill to provide for the use of interlocking switches and other safety devices at railroad crossings and swing or draw bridges.

House bill regulating the taking of fish in Lake Erie and the rivers and other interior waters of the state.

OHIO PROHIBITIONISTS.

FINDLAY, O., April 23.—At the Prohibition state convention yesterday the temporary organization was made permanent. Then came the report of the committee on resolutions. There was a spirited contest over the money plank, the majority of the committee favoring the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the minority advocating free coinage at a ratio to be fixed by law. The majority report was adopted.

The platform as adopted declare for prohibition, favors woman suffrage, opposes alien ownership of land, favors government control of railroads and telegraphs, advocates the raising of revenues by taxation on property and incomes, import duties to be levied only as a means of securing equitable commercial relations, declares for Sunday rest, opposes public appropriations for sectarian purposes, favors the election of president, vice president and United States senators by direct vote, favors liberal pensions, asks for a revision of the immigration laws, favors letting aliens vote only after one year from the time of full naturalization, favors the initiative and referendum and declares for free coinage at 16 to 1.

Supreme court judge—M. B. Chase of Marion county.

Dairy and food commissioner—Joseph Love of Coshocton county.

Nine delegates to the national convention were chosen as follows: G. P. Macklin of Dayton, H. A. Thompson of Springfield, Henrietta G. Monroe of Springfield, R. S. Thompson of Springfield, L. B. Logan of Alliance, G. T. Stewart of Norwalk, Seth H. Ellis of Springboro, F. H. Jones of Wellsville and Florence Richards of Ottawa.

In McKinley's Old District.

Liverpool and C. B. Wick of Youngstown were chosen delegates to the St. Louis convention. McKinley was endorsed for president and his name was wildly cheered.

Seventeenth District.

NEWARK, O., April 23.—The Seventeenth district Republican convention yesterday renominated A. S. McClure of Wooster for congress and adopted resolutions endorsing McKinley for president. George A. Hay, banker, of Coshocton and W. A. Stont of Uricksville were chosen as delegates to the St. Louis convention.

ALABAMA DEMOCRATS.

Cleveland Endorsed in Everything Except His Financial Policy.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 23.—The Democratic state convention nominated the following state ticket: For governor, Captain Joseph F. Johnston; secretary of state, Hon. J. Kirk Jackson, renominated; state treasurer, Mr. Ellis of Dallas county; state auditor, W. S. White of Colbert county; attorney general, Fitts, renominated; superintendent of education, Turner, renominated.

The resolutions adopted advocate the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1; instruct 22 delegates from the state to vote for a unit on all questions at the Chicago convention; also advocate the repeal of the 10 per cent state bank tax; favor honest elections and the legalizing of primary elections.

The convention enthusiastically applauded every mention of President Cleveland's name, and adopted a resolution endorsing his foreign policy and the appointment of southern men to cabinet positions, but disapproving his financial policy.

FROM $12 TO $22,000.

Becker and Cregan Didn't Do a Thing to a Certain Draft.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Charles Becker and James Cregan, the two alleged check forgers of international notoriety and who are said to have operated in every city of importance in this country, who were arrested here a few days ago on suspicion, will probably be sent to San Francisco to answer the charge of raising a draft of $12, on the Crocker-Woolworth bank of Woodland, Cal., to $22,000, and obtaining thereby $20,000 from the Nevada bank of San Francisco.

Counsel for the two banks in this city has placed in Sheriff Clewents' hands a foreign attachment, under the fraudulent debtors' act, to recover the $20,000.

A confidence man now in jail at St. Paul is said to have implicated the men. Criminal proceedings may follow the serving of the writ.

SITUATION AT BULUWAYO.

The Town Surrounded by Over Fourteen Thousand Matabeles.

LONDON, April 23.—The officials of the British South Africa Chartered company have received the following dispatch from Buluwayo, dated yesterday: "The situation is most serious. There are 14,000 Matabeles within three miles, and 1,150 friendly natives have arrived in town."

The dispatch to The Pall Mall Gazette from Buluwayo says: "Both Buluwayo and Gwelo are absolutely safe. The Matabeles are not disposed to attack, but are content with cutting off small bands of whites. It is believed that 300 whites, prospectors or farmers, have been murdered. In seven fights nine whites and 1,000 Matabeles have been killed. The rebels are running short of ammunition."

BOY COMMITS SUICIDE.

Read Dime Novels, Smoked Cigarettes and Disappointed in Love.

MUSKE, Ind., April 23.—About 9 o'clock Tuesday night, at Yorktown, Mrs. Jacob Skinner found the dead body of her 15-year-old son, Charles, dangling from a tree, not 10 feet from the door. He had tied a regulation hangman's noose in a rope used for a swing, and, after adjusting it about his neck, kicked a stepladder from under him.

Charles was addicted to cigarettes, and was a reader of dime novels. Besides this, he was deeply in love with Clara Coppersmith, 14 years old, and he had threatened to kill her because she would not consent to marry him at once. He had a razor in his pocket when found.

FATALLY HURT.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 23.—About 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, as the northbound passenger train on the Chicago and Indiana Coal railway was pulling out of the city, a man was seen lying, apparently asleep, with his head resting on the rail.

It was impossible to stop the train and it struck the man on the left side of the head, knocking him from the track and crushing in the head. He proved to be John Morris, Jr., of this city, who was on his way to work in the mines, and had set down on the tracks to rest and fell asleep. He will surely die.

Prominent Citizen Dead.

CHILLICOTHE, O., April 23.—Albert Douglas, Sr., one of the oldest and most prominent residents of the city, died yesterday of peritonitis, with which he had suffered for a long time. He was father of Judge J. C. Douglas and of Hon. Albert Douglas, Jr., and was one of the pioneer settlers. He was 74, and celebrated his golden wedding not quite a year ago.

IS NOT RULING CUBA

Spain Seems Powerless in Dealing With Insurgents.

TRUE SITUATION AT PRESENT.

A Letter Has Been Received From General Enrique Collazo, Who Recently Left the United States on an Expedition to Cuba. Rev. Diaz Has Been Released From Prison.

TAMPA, Fla., April 23.—The following letter has been received from General Enrique Collazo, who recently left this city on an expedition to Cuba: "La Coronela, Cardenas, April 3, 1896.

"I have been more than agreeably surprised since my arrival here; no one outside of the island can imagine the magnitude or power of the revolution. The power of the Spanish government does not extend beyond the ground that their soldiers occupy and that only while occupied, the forts where they live well entrenched and the cities they inhabit.

"Not an estate grinds without our permission; even 'Portugalete,' belonging to Don Manuel Calvo (the chief supporter of the Spanish government in Cuba) has nicely framed and hung over the entrance to the estate Maximo Gomez's order for its protection.

"Since my arrival here I have seen many Spaniards that live out in the country as 'Spaniards,' and as such are respected by our forces. They are bound to work so as not to die of hunger, and as they can not make a living in the towns are bound to work in their fields. We respect them and do not interfere with them, and yet every now and then they fall victims to Weyler's companions, whose conduct is all the more vile and infamous because it is hypocritical. He protests publicly against these outrages, but his private orders are to the contrary.

"They call us incendiaries and yet they burn everything they come across, where they know that the poor owners have not the means of letting the outside world know what is going on. The greater part of the killed that they report consists of the 'pacificos' who live in the country by the permission of the Spanish in order to gain their living and not starve in the cities. These are the victims and these are the ones who will go to fill up the number of their so-called 'killed in battle.'

"The wake of the Spanish troops can be followed by burnt remains of all the small hats and the destruction of every farm or bit of land that is under cultivation. Every horse or animal that they come across is killed so as to prevent us from utilizing them."

DIAZ TO BE RELEASED.

He and His Brother Must Leave the Country at Once.

HAVANA, April 23.—Captain General Weyler, it has just become known, has decided to release Rev. Albert Diaz, the American Baptist missionary, and his brother, Alfred, from custody, on condition that they will immediately leave Cuba.

A dispatch from Matanzas says that two American newspaper correspondents, Messrs. O'Leary and Daly (Daly) are detained by the authorities there.

A Protestant clergyman who called upon the Diaz brothers since they have been in custody at the residence of the chief of police, Copello, and was informed by the prisoners that they are treated with every consideration by Copello and his assistants. They have no complaint to make. The United States consul general, Mr. Ransom O. Williams, is actively engaged upon the case and nothing will be left undone to provide for their comfort while in the hands of the police.

Hurrying Up Diaz's Case.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Consul General Williams has cabled Secretary Olney as follows: "Diaz detained at police headquarters, occupying spacious, dry and well ventilated room in an upper story. Proceedings in his case are being hurried by orders from headquarters. A result is expected in a couple of days in his and Dygert's cases."

LEASED MINES ABOLISHED.

The Wishes of the Recent Miners' Convention Carried Out.

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—President Penna of the United Mine Workers of America and President Hatchford of the Ohio division have succeeded in abolishing the system of mines leased by miners in this state.

A meeting of 3,000 miners lasting two days has just been held, at which a resolution was adopted to stop operations under this system on the 1st of May, and subdistrict officers were instructed to investigate miners producing coal at less than scale rates in any part of the state and call the miners out of such mines as soon after such date as practicable. The miners justified their course on the ground of cheap coal in the Pittsburgh district, and the claim that machine mines were placing pick mines at a disadvantage. The mine workers' officials are jubilant over their victory.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

NIAGARA FALLS, April 23.—It is alleged that an attempt was made last night to wreck a train on the Michigan Central railway, between Montrose and Suspension Bridge, by placing ties across the track. A freight train ran upon the obstruction without sustaining injury.

W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Ruth L. Rees, of Augusta, one of the State Organizers for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, came to our city on the 10th and met with the woman's prayer service. She is a lovely Christian woman who has consecrated her life to this work. She spoke of the forty departments of work, any of which can be taken up by local unions, the most important being the evangelistic mothers' meetings, prison work, kindergarten, purity, flower mission, the relation of capital and labor, scientific temperance instruction in our public schools, &c.

After the reading of the pledge and constitution a local union was organized with twelve members.

No other organization has accomplished so much for the "sacred cause of temperance" as the American W. C. T. U. The first meeting of the local union will be held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Scott, West Second street, to-day at 3 p. m. All ladies are invited.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

[For the week ending Monday, April 20th.]

The past seven days presented a most remarkable combination of weather conditions, which in some respects, are entirely unique in the records of the Weather Bureau for this State. It was a week of July weather translated into April. The heat was uniformly oppressive throughout the week, and maxima temperatures of 90°, or more, were reported almost daily. This surpasses any known record for the second decade of April. Practically no rain fell, only a few very light and scattered showers being reported. The amount of sunshine received was in excess of the average, clear to partly cloudy weather prevailing during the greater part of the week.

The general effect of the conditions described was highly beneficial to farming interests, though some crops were beginning to need rain at the close of the week. All vegetation was stimulated to a lively growth, and much was accomplished to offset the previous backwardness of the season. The work of plowing made great progress and considerable corn planting was done. The reports concerning the condition of wheat are still very conflicting, but it is apparent that it is generally below the average for the season.

Western Kentucky.—The temperature in this section of the State averaged slightly lower than in others, and good showers early in the week are reported from a few counties. The general tone of reports is highly favorable. Farm work has made great progress, and the greater portion of the plowing in the higher lands has been completed, and the lowlands which had hitherto been too wet to be plowed, are now being worked. Corn planting has been under full headway throughout the week, and in some of the southern tier of counties is nearly completed. Wheat is apparently in much better condition in this than in other sections of the State. All correspondents state that it has improved greatly during the week, and many report its condition to be excellent. Oats are coming up very nicely and all kinds of grasses look well. Tobacco plants are growing very rapidly and are very plentiful. Cut worms have appeared in many counties, but as yet no damage has been inflicted by them. All fruits are safe and the outlook for an abundant crop is excellent. Rain would still further improve the prospects in this section.

Central Kentucky.—The highest temperatures for the week are reported from this section of the State. No rain fell and the hot weather, combined with the brisk winds which prevailed during the week, have rendered the soil very dry and dusty, and there is hardly an exception to the general complaint that rain is needed. Farm work has, however, made rapid strides during the week. The greater part of the corn land has been plowed, and much planting has been done. Wheat, though improved somewhat, is generally reported to be in poor condition in this section of the State, and in many places is being plowed under and the land being prepared for corn. Oats and young clover are coming up very well, and pastures and meadows are in good condition. A great deal of gardening has been done during the week. The soil has been prepared for hemp, but the crop cannot be put in until rain comes. A great many tobacco beds were sown, and in many the plants are up and look very well. Fruits of all kinds promise a good yield. Some complaint is made from a few counties of the appearance of cut worms.

Eastern Kentucky.—The excessively warm weather combined with the total absence of rain has caused the soil to become very dry, and the need of rain is greater in this section perhaps, than in the central counties. Upon the whole, however, all forms of vegetation have advanced rapidly and farmers are catching up with their work. Plowing for corn is in progress and some has been planted, but the putting of the crop in the ground will probably be somewhat late. The seeding of oats is about completed, and some are growing above ground. Wheat has improved, but its condition is generally reported to be only fair. Grasses of all kinds are in good condition, but need rain. Gardening has made good progress during the week, and potato planting is about completed. All fruits are in full bloom and promise a good yield.

down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." The Bemis Tobacco Setter.

The only successful transplanter on the market, and stood the test during the dry season of 1895, where its competitors failed. A practical machine that any farmer can use, simply constructed and will last a life-time if properly cared for. Makes its own season, gets tobacco out earlier, starts quicker and more uniformly than hand planting. Will make its price every year in a small crop. See what the largest grower in the State says about it. From Leslie Ombre, Lexington, Ky.: This is to certify that I have used three different Tobacco Transplanting Machines upon my farm, and that I find the plants live so much better after the Fuller & Johnson "Bemis" I would buy no other. This opinion is formed from working all of these machines side by side through the entire season of 1895. Every machine fully warranted to do satisfactory work in the field or no sale. To secure one of these machines orders must be placed early. For sale by

BURLEY TOBACCO.

Much Smaller Crop and Better Quality a Necessity.

Burley Average Now Less Than Five Cents Per Pound—An Excessive Supply of Common Stuff.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Tobacco Leaf, the organ of the tobacco trade of the United States, has the following which growers will do well to read and heed:

As the season approaches for the planting of this year's burley crop, there are a great many facts in connection with it that ought to be taken into consideration by the vast army of growers throughout the burley districts. Unless they give heed to advice and suggestions established by facts and figures, they will only continue present conditions and probably make them worse by growing another large and inferior crop of tobacco.

It is well known that the lands on which burley has been raised have deteriorated by reason of the successive crops grown year after year. The farmers' attempt to grow such a large acreage has only resulted in crops of inferior quality, especially in the last three or four years. The general depression in business throughout the country and the idleness of the wage earners has created a demand for a cheaper grade of chewing and smoking tobacco, and these crops, being principally of low and inferior grades, have supplied, in a large measure, this demand. But the demand has not been large enough, in proportion to the consumption of the vast quantities raised, hence the stocks have accumulated in the open markets of the United States, and on March 1, 1896, the stocks of leaf in this country were 106,600 hds., as against 85,000 hds. for the same time last year, showing an increase of over 21,000 hds.

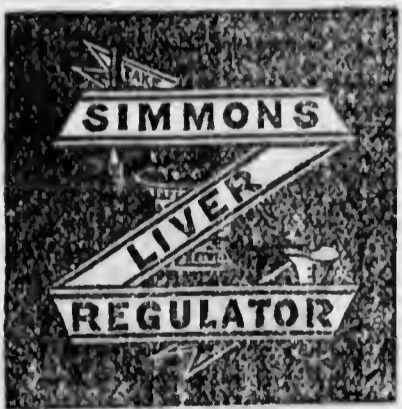

A careful study of the total offerings of burley, both in Cincinnati and Louisville, for this year to date will show an average of less than five cents, and the average on the new (1895) crop alone in the two markets for the same time will show considerably less. After deducting the expenses and charges of preparing for market and selling this tobacco, it is well known that it would not pay to grow it at these figures, and the farmer is simply losing money. The recent failure of one of the most prominent growers in the Blue Grass country is in itself sufficient to demonstrate this fact.

The starting of a new warehouse in Lexington or anywhere else is not going to improve matters one iota. The grower is the most important factor in this whole situation, and he alone can change its conditions and produce a better state of affairs. It is simply reduced to this, that he must plant less tobacco; and when he does this, let him take every precaution to improve the quality of the reduced acreage. With the growing of a superior crop of tobacco this year, and with the improved condition of business in the country which will probably soon develop, he may change the existing state of affairs. Grow more of a better quality.

It is a well-known fact that consumers of tobacco are getting a little tired of cheap plug, and with an improvement in business and better wages for the laborers, they would naturally want a better chew. If a fine crop of tobacco were raised this year it would certainly bring better prices than an inferior one; and a great many manufacturers who desire to put higher grades of chewing on the market would be enabled to do so. With the desire for a change among the chewers, the conditions that now prevail would be entirely changed, and better prices at once established for leaf. This would develop if the crop were of good quality. The foundations for better commercial and financial conditions in the country that are now developing would prepare the demand for just such a crop of tobacco if the farmers would grow it, and they would reap the benefit of intelligent effort in this line. But they cannot proceed on the presumption that tobacco is going to get higher under the existing condition of things unless they are willing to help change matters by planting less tobacco, by giving it greater care and attention, and doing everything in their power to grow a crop of better quality.

It will simply be folly to grow another crop like that of last year, as with the present large stocks in the warehouses, and that which is ready to come to market, it is believed that another crop of like proportions and equally poor quality would not net the grower more than 25 per cent. of the cost of production.

THERE is another impostor abroad in the State and the good people are warned to be on their guard. This time it is a woman with a pathetic face, who is going around to the smaller towns and passing herself off as "General Jackson's niece," or a kinswoman of some Southern dignitary long gone to his rest. She usually puts up at a hotel for a week or ten days, and then suddenly disappears without paying her bill.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malaria poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

Work has been commenced at tearing down the old Augusta college building at Augusta, to make room for an elegant new public school building. The college was built in 1825, and it is claimed that it was the first Methodist college in the world. It was for many years the leading institution of learning in the South. In 1852 the building was partially destroyed by fire. The building has been used by the Augusta graded school for the past six years.

J. S. PECK, of Fleming County, has filed a deed of assignment to C. W. and J. W. Robertson. The liabilities as given amount to about $7,070, and are as follows: Louisville Building and Loan Company, $4,700, secured by mortgage, Exchange Bank, $1,000, S. B. Planck, $1,000, secured by mortgage, F. P. Robertson, $250, T. H. Gray, $130. Stocks, crops, farming implements, etc., and 308 acres of land situated on Fleming Creek compose the assets.

RIPLEY BEE: "A good joke comes to us from Maysville, concerning two married ladies from this city who were up there shopping. It was about train time, when the ferryboat whistled to pass another steamer. The ladies hurried down to the river, and did not discover their mistake until informed by the captain that they did not have to cross the river as the cars were on that side. They laughed heartily over their mistake, and thought it such a good joke, that they had to tell it when they arrived home."

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

THE LATE THOMAS J. ROGERS.

A Tribute to Deceased From the Wichita Eagle—His Virtues
Were Legion.

[Wichita Eagle, April 17th.]

Two neighbors died in this city yesterday about the same time and from the same cause. Both lived on the corresponding lots on the first block south of the court house. The home of one faced on Main street; the home of the other on Market street with the alley separating their premises. Both were well known and highly esteemed citizens of Wichita. One was C. F. Manuel and the other was T. J. Rogers.

The death of Mr. Rogers occurred shortly before noon and although confined to his house for three weeks with illness his death was by no means expected. The fact is his illness was never considered in the least serious. He was feeling very well yesterday morning and was thinking about going to his office in the afternoon when he again complained of feeling badly and died in a very short time.

When the death of Mr. Rogers became known it caused sorrow among all classes of people who knew him. He has lived in Wichita for nine years and no citizen was more popular. He was a perfect, genial, warm hearted gentleman both in business and private life. He never offended any man and many are indebted to him for his kindness of heart. He would share his last dollar with a friend, and many are who have enjoyed his generosity during the past few years. He was engaged in the insurance business and was undoubtedly the most prosperous underwriter in the city.

Mr. Rogers was thirty-seven or thirty-eight years of age and was a native of Kentucky where he was born and reared. While a thorough Kansan he always loved to talk about the blue grass fields, the eloquent men and the fair women of his home State. Three years ago he married Miss Sanders, of Frankfort, but they have no children. Mrs. Rogers is prostrated with grief over the loss of her husband. Since coming to Wichita Mrs. Rogers has made hosts of friends among the best ladies of the city all of whom are doing what they can to mitigate her grief and lighten the burden of her great sadness.

Mr. George Rogers, brother of the deceased, who lives at Maysville, Ky., was telegraphed for.

Mr. Rogers carried a good amount of insurance in the old line companies and it was only a few weeks before he took sick that County Clerk Denny prevailed on him to join the A. O. U. W. in which organization he carries an additional policy of $2,000.

All who knew the quiet, friendly, genial, warm hearted Tom will shed a tear of sorrow over his death. There was nothing in his nature that was not grand and noble and generous. None of his faults, if he had any, can be recalled; his virtues come to mind in legions.

Mrs. James M. Woods was painfully injured by falling down stairs at her home on East Second street.

"THE TRIUMPH OF LOVE"

IS HAPPY, FRUITFUL MARRIAGE."

Every Man Who Would Know the Grand Truths, the Plain Facts, the New Discoveries of Medical Science as Applied to Married Life, Who Would Atone for Past Errors and Avoid Future Pitfalls, Should Secure the Wonderful Little Book Called "Complete Manhood, and How to Attain It."

Here at last is information from a high medical source that must work wonders with this generation of men.
The book fully describes a method by which to attain full vigor and manly power.
A method by which to end all unnatural ailments of the sex.

To cure nervousness, lack of self-control, despondency, etc.
To exchange a faded and worn nature for one of brightness, energy and power.
To cure forever effects of excesses, overwork, worry, etc.

To give full strength, development, and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
Age no barrier. Failure impossible. Two thousand references.
The book is purely medical and scientific, useless to charlatans, seers, and fortune tellers.
A despairing man, who had applied to us, soon after wrote:

"Well, I tell you that first day is one I'll never forget. I just bubbled with joy. I wanted to hug everybody and tell them my old self had died yesterday, and my new self was born today. Why didn't you tell me when I first wrote that I would find it this way?"

And another thus:
"If you dumped a cart load of gold at my feet it would not bring such gladness into my life as your method has done."
Write to the ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY, Buffalo, N. Y., and ask for the little book called "COMPLETE MANHOOD." Refer to this paper, and the company promises to send the book, in a sealed envelope, without any marks, and entirely free, until it is well introduced.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
